

Why Parents Love Our Ofsted-Registered Holiday Camps with School of Play

At Branwood Preparatory School, we understand how important it is for parents to find a safe, engaging, and high-quality childcare option during the school holidays. That's why we're delighted to partner with School of Play when it comes to our school's holiday camp provision.

School of Play's Ofsted-registered and approved holiday camps provide children with exciting, enriching experiences and offer parents complete peace of mind. All activities are designed to give children an unforgettable break, filled with creativity, active play, and joyful memories.

But what makes these camps truly special?

Here's why families in our community love School of Play's holiday camps:

1. Ofsted-Registered for Safety and Quality

When choosing a holiday camp, safety is their number one priority. School of Play's Ofsted registration and reports reflect their dedication to deliver high standards in childcare, safeguarding, and training. They've received four (4) glowing reports in the last three (3) years.

Their team consists of qualified childcare professionals trained in paediatric first aid, behaviour management, and child protection.

With structured activities, close supervision, and a strong focus on the children's wellbeing, every day at camp is safe, stimulating, and fun.

2. A Perfect Blend of Creativity and Sport

Children attending School of Play's holiday camps at Branwood can choose between two fantastic experiences:

 CREATE Crew (Ages 3 years 6 months – 11 years)

For young creatives who love arts & crafts, science experiments, and food making – this camp inspires imagination and curiosity.

 MULTI-SPORTS Marvels (Ages 5 – 11 years)

For energetic children who enjoy variety and movement – with football, cricket, dodgeball, mini-golf and more, it's all about teamwork and fun!

Both camps offer new skills, social confidence, and heaps of enjoyment in a nurturing environment.

3. A Warm and Welcoming Atmosphere

At Branwood, we pride ourselves on our inclusive, family-friendly ethos—and School of Play's camps are no exception. Their experienced and passionate team makes sure every child feels welcome, valued, and supported, whether it's their first time or they're a familiar face.

Welcoming children from Worsley, Eccles, Swinton, Boothstown and surrounding areas, this is a holiday camp with real community spirit.

4. Supporting Families with Reliable Holiday Care

We know school holidays can be tricky for working parents. That's why we're proud to offer structured, reliable childcare in a safe and stimulating setting. Parents can go about their day, knowing their child is happy, active, and well looked after.

5. A Proven Favourite Among Families

Families return year after year thanks to School of Play's trusted reputation, friendly staff, and enriching programme. The children love the mix of activities and the parents love that their children make new friends!
